6                   UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7                   WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
8                   AT SEATTLE

9                   ARLEN AND ROBIN SARKISSIAN,

8                   CASE NO. C20-5458 RSM

9                   Plaintiffs,

9                   ORDER

10                  v.

11                  SELECT PORTFOLIO SERVICING, INC.,
12                  et al.,

13                  Defendants.

14                  This matter is before the Court on Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion to Continue Discovery
15                  and for Extension of Deadlines. Dkt. #47. The Court previously set a June 28, 2021 deadline
16                  for completing discovery. Dkt. #31. Plaintiffs indicate that a final deposition was to occur on 17                  that date. Dkt. #47 at 2. However, due to conditions outside of the parties' control, the deposition
18                  was not able to go forward on June 28, 2021. Id. Plaintiffs indicate that Defendants do not 19                  oppose their motion and that the parties have agreed that the deposition can be rescheduled for 20                  July 9, 2021. Id. at 1–2.

21                  The Court grants the requested relief only in part. Plaintiffs indicate a single deposition,
22                  which can occur on July 9, 2021, is all the discovery that remains. Good cause supports the Court
23                  granting leave to take the deposition after the Court's prior discovery deadline. However, good 24                  cause does not support extending the remaining pre-trial deadlines, especially in light of the

1 Court's already crowded and shifting calendar. The next deadline is the July 26, 2021 deadline
2 for dispositive motions. Dkt. #31. Even without changing the deadline the parties will have
3 adequate access to a transcript of the July 9, 2021 deposition. Further, the parties do not indicate
4 whether either anticipates filing a dispositive motion.

5 Accordingly, and having considered Plaintiffs' motion and the remainder of the record,
6 the Court finds and ORDERS that Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion to Continue Discovery and for 7 Extension of Deadlines (Dkt. #47) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part as set forth in this
8 Order.

9 Dated this 6th day of July, 2021.
